'SINGLE GIRL QUOTA' INTRODUCED THIS YEAR DU kickstarts UG admissions, 71,000 seats up for grabs

VIDHEESHA KUNTAMALLA
NEW DELHI, MAY 28

THE DELHI University on Tuesday kicked off its undergraduate admission process for the 2024-25 academic year. Up for grabs are 71,000 seats across its 69 colleges. The new session is likely to commence on August 1, DU Dean of Admissions Haneeet Gandhi said.

This year, DU has introduced the 'Single Girl Child' quota under its supernumerary category, where a single girl will be admitted under it based on merit across programmes. Launching the Common Seat Allocation System (CSAS) admission portal, Gandhi said the admission process will be held in two phases — the first phase for registration and the second for seat allocation — after the qualifying Common University Entrance Test (CUET) results are declared. The portal will be open for about a month.

Like last year, admission to all programmes is based on scores obtained in CUET. For undergraduate aspirants, on offer are 79 programmes and 183 BA programme combinations. Gandhi said, "In CUET 2023-24, B.Com (Hons) and B.Com were the most sought-after courses with over 1 lakh students showing interest in both."

Like 2023, the university will admit more students than the number of seats available to account for withdrawals later in the academic session.

"This year, the students admitted will be 20% more than the available seats in the general category; under the SC/ST and PwD category, an additional 30% students will be admitted," said Registrar Vikas Gupta.

This, Gupta added, would be the first step to avoid multiple mop-up rounds, which the university had to hold in the previous year to fill seats in colleges.

Applying to DU: A step-by-step guide

Students can apply for admission through the official website

Bibhav lawyer says prosecutor was with judge before order, gets court warning

Arrested aide of CM Kejriwal sent to police custody for three days

NIRBHAY THAKUR
NEW DELHI, MAY 28

THERE WAS high drama in Tis Hazari court on Tuesday when the lawyer for Bibhav Kumar, the arrested aide of Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal, alleged that the Additional Public Prosecutor was sitting in the magistrate's chamber for an hour before Kumar was sent to police custody for three days.

Advocate Rajat Bharadwaj, representing Bibhav who was arrested for allegedly assaulting AAP Rajya Sabha MP Swati Malhi and was produced in court at the end of four days of judicial custody, said: "We want to mention something... The public prosecutor was sitting in your chamber... Please record my statement that after the order was reserved, the PP was sitting in the chamber of the judge... This is unfair."

Responding to this, Metropolitan Magistrate Gaurav Goyal said: "Mera order, mei pronounce karunga. Aaram se, you are levelling allegations against the court (It is my order, I will pronounce it... you are levelling allegations against the court)."

In an application moved before the court, Kumar's lawyer also asked that the CCTV footage in the corridor outside the magistrate's chamber be preserved and looked at for "fair dispensation of justice".

2 held, Audi involved in hit-and-run of retd AIR staffer found in Noida

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
NOIDA, MAY 28

TWO DAYS after a 64-year-old retired Air India radio (AIR) employee died after an Audi allegedly hit him in Noida Sector 53, police arrested two men for their alleged involvement in the case. Police on Tuesday also recovered the white Audi which hit the victim, said officers.

According to police, the car belonged to one Pramod Kumar Singh — a resident of Ganesh Daryana — which was driven by 24-year-old Luv Kumar alias Mamu, who was accompanied by Prince Kumar, 28, when the incident took place. Pramod had allowed one of his relatives to drive the Audi, who further gave the car keys to two of his friends Luv and Prince. Luv and Pramod are distant relatives, police added. Luv and Prince, both residents of Palamu in Jharkhand, have been arrested, said police.

Early Sunday morning, Janak Dev Shah had left home in Gijhor village in Noida Sector 53 to buy milk from a shop right across his residence. Within a few seconds, a speeding white car had allegedly hit him, flinging him into the air before he crashed on the ground. He had died on the spot, police added. The incident took place around 6.30 am at a junction near Kanchenjunga market.

"CCTV footage from nearly 150 spots of Noida and Delhi were analysed... and the car was recovered from the parking area of a multi-storey building near AIMS Delhi... The duo, who was in the car at the time of the incident, has been arrested..." said Manish Kumar Mishra, ADGP, Noida.

CM ensured there was no meaningful discussion on excise policy, says ED

NIRBHAY THAKUR
NEW DELHI, MAY 28

"CM KEJRIWAL was part of a larger conspiracy to generate the proceeds of crime..." he ensured that there was no meaningful discussion," submitted the Enforcement Directorate (ED) before a Delhi court on Tuesday, while highlighting the role of the Delhi Chief Minister in the money laundering case linked to the excise policy 'scam'.

Zohab Hossain, special counsel for the ED, also argued that Kejriwal had met Magunta Sreenivasulu Reddy, who mentioned the CM in his statement, when the profit margin in the now-scraped Delhi excise policy increased, from 5 per cent to 12 per cent — a generation of proceeds of crime worth Rs 338 crore
